

Kenosha Area: A Taste of History 2 Day Tour

ARRIVAL DAY 1

9 AM – At the Civil War Museum, board a train bound for the battle front and hear personal stories of soldiers, nurses, doctors and clergymen. Travel back home on a riverboat and see how life was forever changed.

11:30 AM – Tour Durkee Mansion and Kemper Center. The 1860's await you in great splendor and elegance in this lovingly restored Victorian mansion along Lake Michigan.

1 PM – Enjoy a taste of Deutschland hospitality, with a German lunch at House of Gerhard where the Old World Charm will make you feel simply "Wunderbar".

2:30 PM – Take a ride into yesteryear aboard an authentic Electric Streetcar!

3:00 PM – Enjoy a step-on guide tour along the Lake Michigan shore, and through Kenosha's four National Register Historic Districts.

4 PM – Tour Tenuta's Italian Market, a Kenosha tradition since 1950. Savor the aroma as you enter the store featuring many specialty groceries and spices. Don't miss the cannoli!

5 PM – Check into one of Kenosha's premier hotels for the evening.

6 PM – Enjoy an Italian-American dinner at Casa Capri, one of Kenosha's oldest and finest restaurants featuring steaks, seafood, and authentic Italian recipes.

DAY 2

9 AM – Visit Rhode Center for the Arts and its Pollard Gallery. Tour the beautiful historic theater. Pollard Gallery, one of many Kenosha Area art galleries, has on exhibit a partial collection of portraits by international portrait artist George Pollard and children's works by Nan Pollard.

10:30 AM – See how Kenosha County developed and grew at the Kenosha History Center.

Discover Kenosha's rich auto-making history! You may also climb to the top of the 1866 Southport Lighthouse.

NOON – Enjoy a lakeside lunch at Boat House Pub & Eatery, enjoy a picnic at the lakefront with a catered lunch from the catering team behind Circa at Seventh, or eat at Circa - a banquet space renovated and restored from an old theatre.

1:30 PM – Visit Jack Andrea – a true Kenosha landmark. For four generations, the family-owned store has delighted guests of all ages. Pause for an old-fashioned ice cream soda or malted milkshake at the original soda fountain of Jack's Café inside the shop.

2:45 PM – Aboard the Jelly Belly Express train, discover the candy making secrets of a fifth-generation candy making family at Jelly Belly Visitor Center. Enjoy tasty candy samples and shop to bring some home with you.

4:00 PM – Depart for home.
